Day 02: Hong Kong

(B/L/-)

In addition to the stock exchanges and the various business interests, Hong-Kong is alive with more traditional marketplaces about which Western travellers may be unaware. You will discover Hong Kong's numerous markets on foot and by using the public transport system.

Your day starts with the Bird Market and the Flower Market, both located in the north of Mongkok. To take a stroll with their caged birds is a favourite activity of old people in Hong Kong, and your walk through the market will be accompanied by the sweet lullabies of these small creatures kept for company. At the neighbouring flower market you can find a huge variety of flowers, from the famous Dutch tulip through to exotic orchids, all in a colourful sensory experience.

From here we move to the Goldfish Market, found on Tang Choi road, whose impassioned vendors not only hawk exotic fish, coral, tanks and accompanying plant decor, but also dogs, spiders, lizards and snakes – making the experience almost like going to the zoo! The popularity of fish in China comes from their symbolism of good fortune and association with wealth.

Have Dimsum Lunch at local restaurant.

Ascent to Victoria Peak taking around 5 minutes in the Peak tram, which ascends at a gradient of up to 27 degrees! The peak is the highest point in Hong Kong (552m/1811ft) and is truly a great place to come to escape the summer heat. British colonists, who completed their ascension carried in Sedan chairs, regularly took refuge here during the 19th century and even granted residence rights only to expatriates (it was not until after the Second World War that locals were allowed to live there)...

You will be able to take in the magnificent 360 degree view from Sky Terrace 428 which, when the weather is good, lets you see both the tip of Kowloon and the neighbouring islands of Lantau and Lamma.

Return transfer to your hotel after the sunset.
